Organizations

The student council officers are Tracy Roberts, treasurer; Brenda Martin, reporter; Theresa Gordon, secretary; Rhonda Roberts, vice-president; Jerry Kuchenbrod, president; and Mr. Stagen, advisor.

The junior and senior representatives are Phyllis Buck, Julie Criblez, Bill Marrs, Lori Roberts, and Gary Kuchenbrod.

Student Council

The freshmen and sophomore representatives are Ed Hannagan, Brian Remington, Teresa Smith, Kim Oder, Barry Kuchenbrod, Jackie Buck, Kent Cornelius, Becki Dorsey, Jamie Miles, and Karen Elliott.

Student Council Sponsored Activities

Homecoming was a stunning success, with Student Council actually coming out in the black-money-wise.

Fun Night was just that for all who attended the festivities. Right: Class Competition Day was a headache for the committee and a good time for everybody else.

NHS Inducts Nine Members

The Armstrong National Honor Society added nine students to its roll to boost the total number of members to twenty-five. Thirteen of those members became alumni of ATHS on June 5, 1977.

NHS members are Rhonda Roberts, Chris Elliott, Rusty Stagen, Tracy Roberts, Tari Carpenter, Sara Fourez, Phyllis Buck, Tammy Bohlen, Patti Wiesner, Beverly Buck, and Martha Buck.

The NHS officers are Jerry Kuchenbrod, president; Theresa Gordon, secretary; Teresa Tool, treasurer, and Bill Marrs, vice-president.

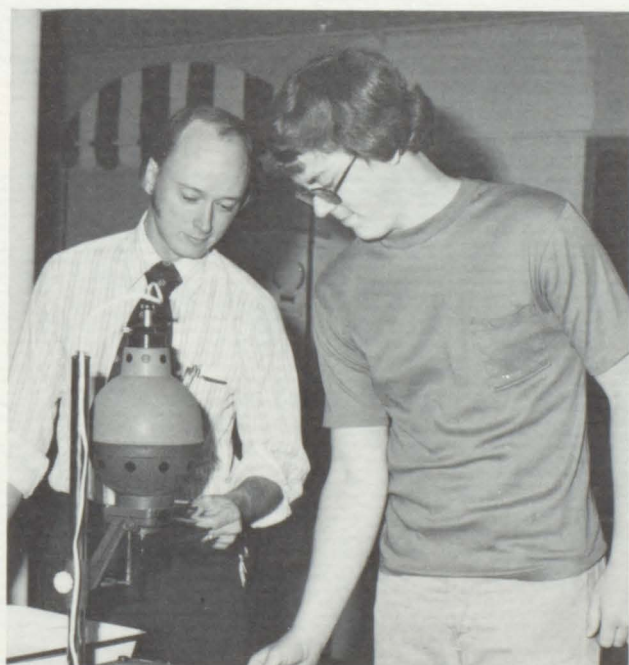

The new members are Lori Roberts, Brenda Martin, Larry Roberts, Dan James, Becki Dorsey, Dan DeYoung, Kim Miles, and Tammy Park.

Camera Club

Camera Club which this year took the place of Science Club got off to a late but enthusiastic start. The club members met four times during the year, learning to use the Student Council camera and grasping the basics of developing film. Hopefully the club will continue its existence next year and go on to bigger and better things.

Yearbook Staff

Piecing the Year's Events Together

As deadlines near, smiles aren't always so evident on the faces of yearbook staff members Teresa Tool, Valerie Cornelius, Lori Roberts, and Tracy Roberts.

"Don't flatten his head," says yearbook staff members Susie Husted, Beverly Buck, and Tammy Bohlen as they crop pictures for the annual.

GAA

The Girl's Athletic Association meets every Wednesday after school. Their activities include horseshoes, softball, volleyball, basketball, bowling, archery, and badminton. Sportsmanship and good times are stressed more than the awards given at the end of the year.

The GAA members are from front moving clockwise: Cara King, Laurie Tool, Kim Suits, Marla King, Teresa Park, Phyllis Buck, Rhonda Roberts, Kelia Ellis, Julie Criblez, Brenda Martin, Martha Buck, Tammy Park, Karen Elliott, Coletta Mosson, and Laura Godon.

President Tammy B. loafs on the job as Theresa G. explains the GAA skit for Stunt Night.

Characters of the Stage

Drama Club

The Drama Club, newly formed this year, was lax on meetings but high in enthusiasm. Always willing to pose for a picture, the club's only "meeting" with all in attendance is pictured right. All Drama Club members played an active part in the play as a cast or crew member.

Club members are Sara Fourez, Tracy Roberts, Rhonda Roberts, Phyllis Buck, Chris Elliott, Jim Keener, Tom Woodard, Gary Kuchenbrod, Valerie Cornelius, David Burton, and Bill Marrs.

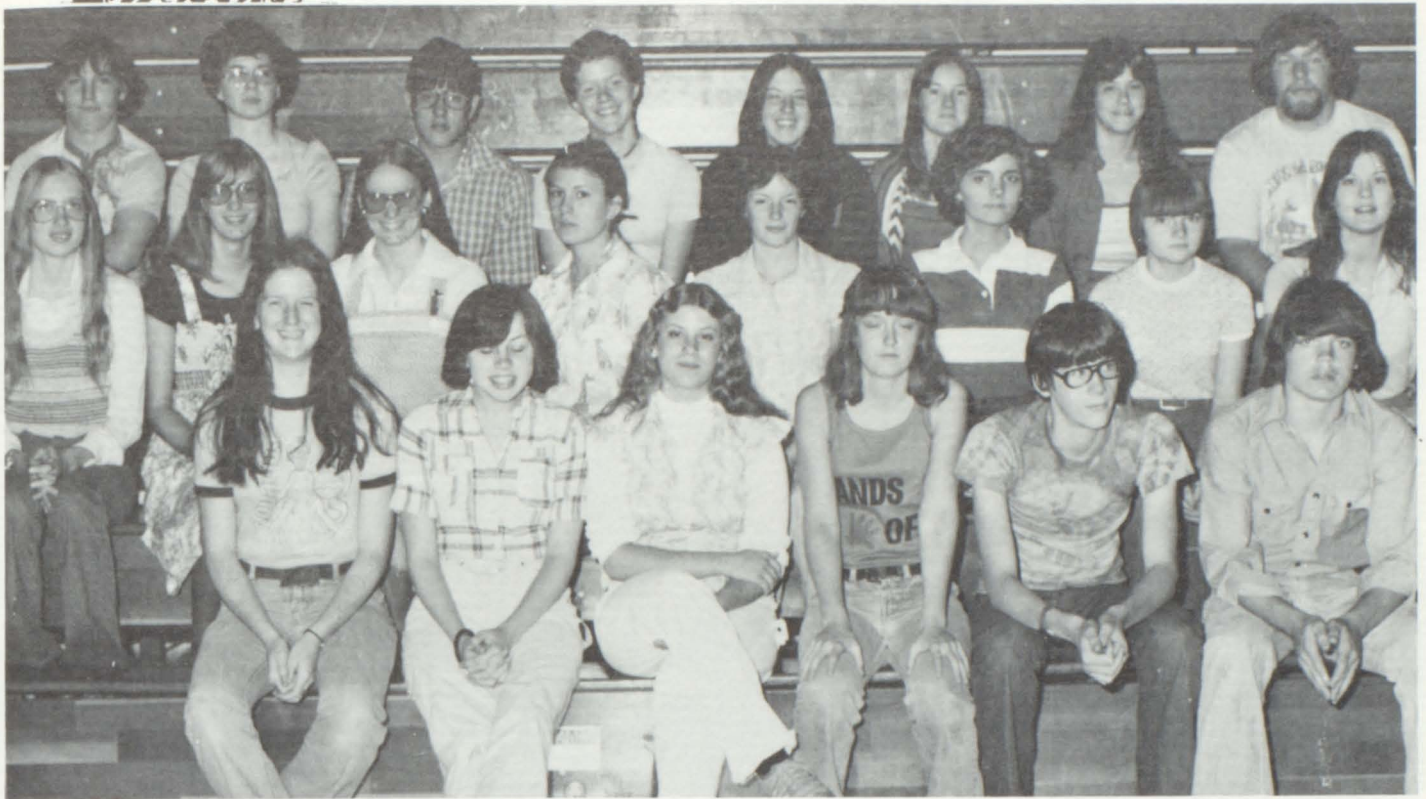

Officers are Jerry Kuchenbrod, president; Martha Buck, secretary; Ms. Monteith, sponsor; Patti Wiesner, vice-president; Tammy Bohlen, treasurer.

Activities

Freshmen Learn the High School Hop

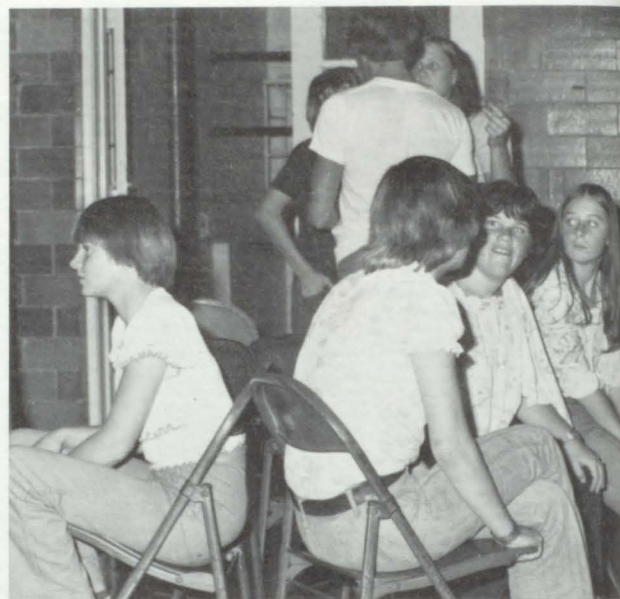

Marla K. may not be very excited about this dance, but Kim S. is pleased to pose for a picture.

Brent M. learns the ropes early, and left the gang at the door to try his hand at wooing Tammy B.'s heart.

Shoes on or off, the dancing is the same, and everybody mingled as they put good use to the band's music.

Karla B. either does not like crowds, or has her eye on something very interesting.

Valerie C. finds a partner in Scot B., one of the funkier freshmen.

Kelia E. you can't have Chris E.'s lap all to yourself, afterall Julie C. wants her turn too.

Fun Night

Stunt Night

Armstrong's second annual Stunt Night was deemed as successful as the first by all those in attendance. The evening began with a Chili Supper sponsored by the Spanish Club. Good food was followed by good times, and the sparks were flying as the Trojans fired up for a Homecoming victory. The Armstrong Band provided the music, and various organizations and classes presented spirit-building skits. Cheers and chants were led by the Varsity and Junior Varsity cheerleaders. The Sophomores walked away with the spirit stick, and the Juniors claimed the longest spirit chain. At the sight of the smoke from the burning Artesian filling the air, everyone was assured that the Trojans would come out on top Homecoming Night.

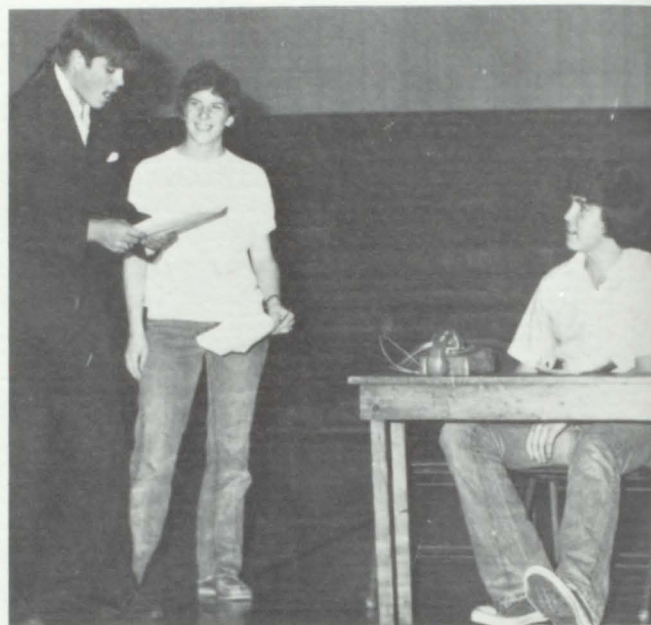

Rhonda R. was Mistress of Ceremonies for the evening.

The Artesians' hopes for a victory went up in smoke.

Chris E., lead role in the FFA skit, shares his secrets for growing Trojan spirit plants with uneducated farmers.

Phyllis B. becomes an Artesian well in the GAA skit.

The band, directed by Mr. Kelly, lifted the Trojans' spirits.

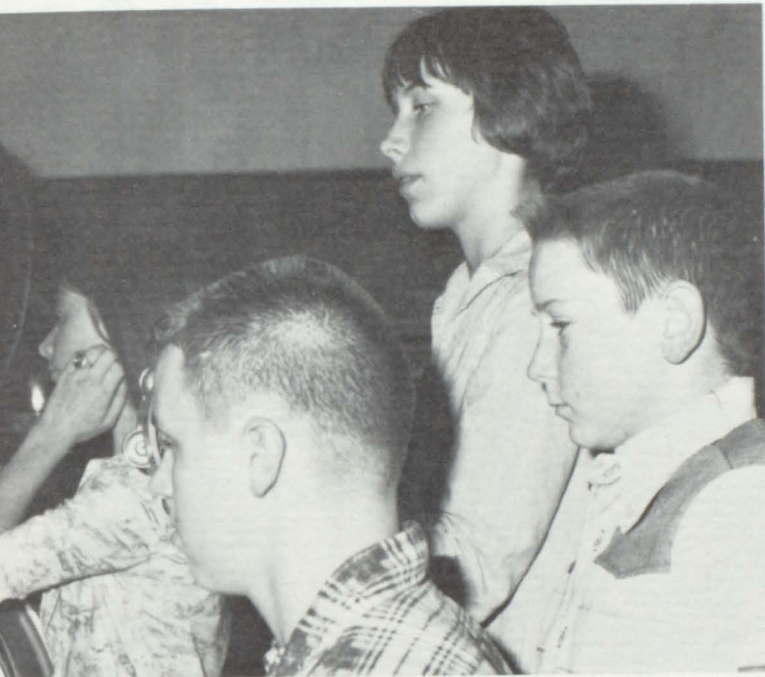

Tammy B., what's behind the curtain?

Cara K. holds the Trojans' jug of spirits, while Brenda M. and Kelia E. predict a victory for the Trojan team in the GAA skit, a spoof Let's Make a Deal. Right: Kathie M. is the sleeping, snoring Artesian in the Spanish Club skit.

Kim O., Sara F., Mark F., and John B., the percussion section of the AHS band, totally absorbed in their "work".

The Artesian's future looks grim as the flames consume his body.

Heights of Homecoming '76

"One of These Nights" was the theme for Armstrong's 26th annual homecoming. For many November 27 was the night. Intrigue and excitement hung over the crowd as the Trojans downed the Artesians in an overtime win of 77-70.

Then romance and tenderness prevailed, as couples danced under the starry decorations to the music of Eclipse. The name was ideal, for like that strange movement of moon and sun, so the band lent an air of mystery to the entire evening. Neither Camelot nor Rhett Butler's arms could have held more enchantment than our transformed cafeteria-gym did on Homecoming night.

Stairway to Heaven

On, with the dance! Let joy be unconfined:
No sleep till morn, when Youth
and Pleasure meet
To chase the glowing Hours with flying feet.

—Lord Byron

Stairway to Heaven Prom '77 was a night that those who attended will long remember. The sight of this "heavenly" evening's activities was indeed close to the stars—20th floor of Century 21 in Urbana.

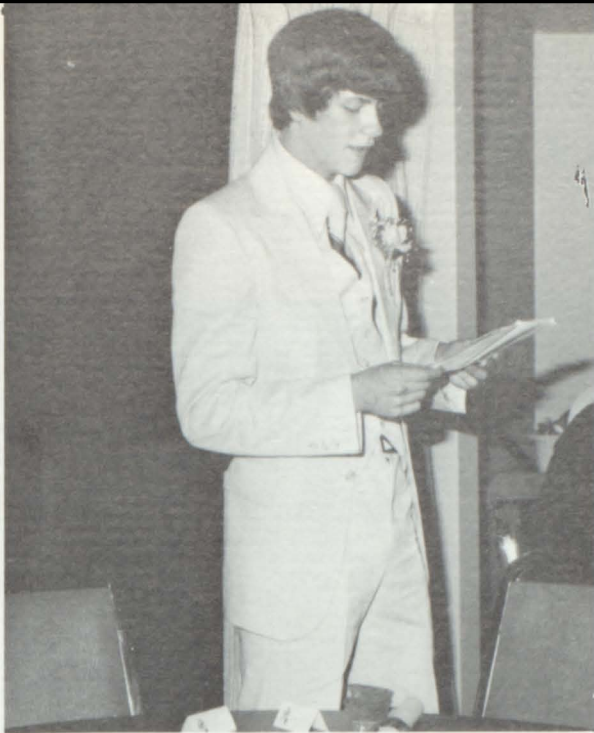

After the buffet supper, hard to enjoy with visions of gray spots marring the laps of rented tuxedos and elegant gowns, everyone settled back to listen to the traditional prophecy and will. As the music by Freewheelin' filled the air, couples shyly began to make their way toward the dance floor. Their shyness soon vanished, though, and as the night went on the dancers multiplied in number.

At the magic hour, 12:00 midnight, not a yawn in sight—everyone went their separate ways—some to parties, some to breakfast, some to bed—but no matter the destination, one thing was certain there was not a prom-goer happy to see the evening of May 7 come to an end.

A new fad or not enough chairs to go around?

Mike Hovel tells it like it will be for the class of '77.

Most of the night was spent "working" off supper.

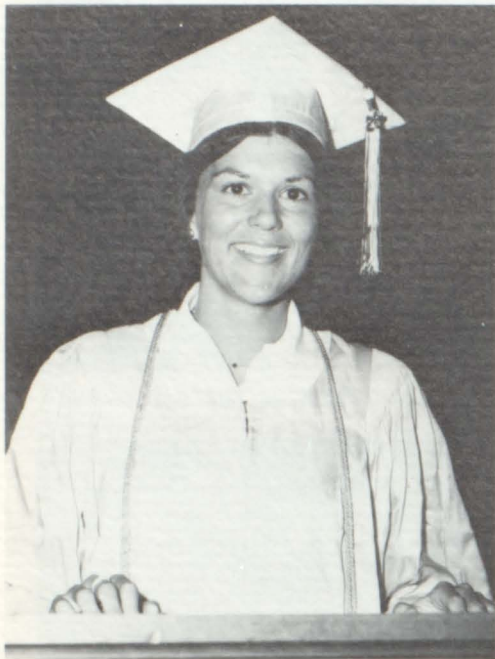

Rhonda Roberts reads the last will and testament of the senior class. Below: Connie Turner and Tammy Park played the role of charming hostess.

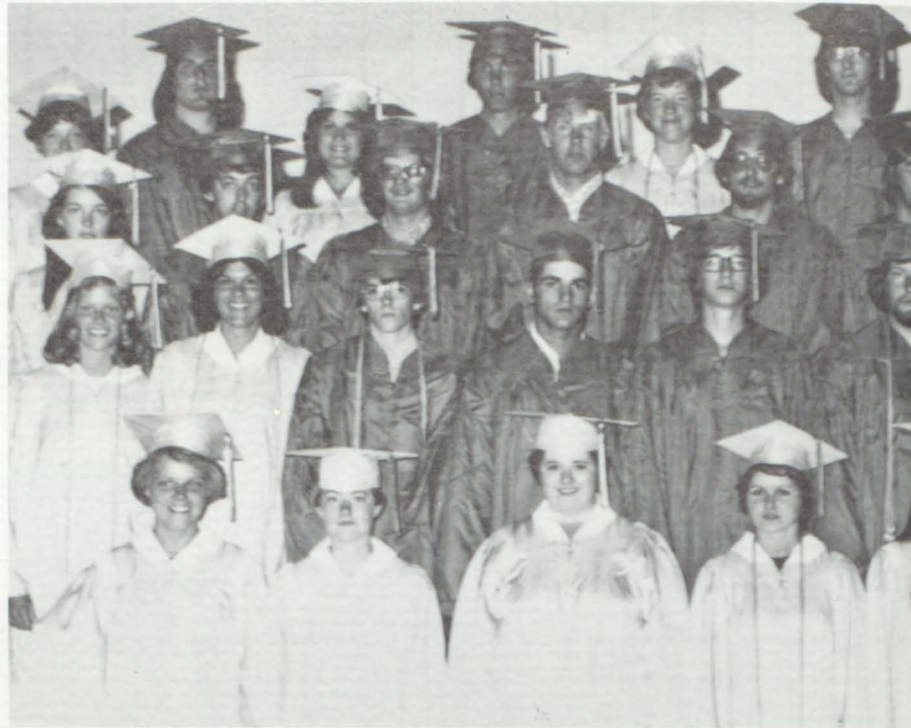

Below: There are some things in life that can never be parted with.

Students Honored at Annual Awards Night

Valerie Cornelius received the outstanding chorus trophy and Teresa Tool received the outstanding band trophy.

Rhonda Roberts, a four-year cheerleader, received the cheerleading trophy.

Awards Night

Phyllis Buck won the Betty Crocker award.

Mervin Frerichs, board president, welcomed everyone.

A Bright Spot In the School Year

Jeff Suits received the Votec Golden Hammer award.

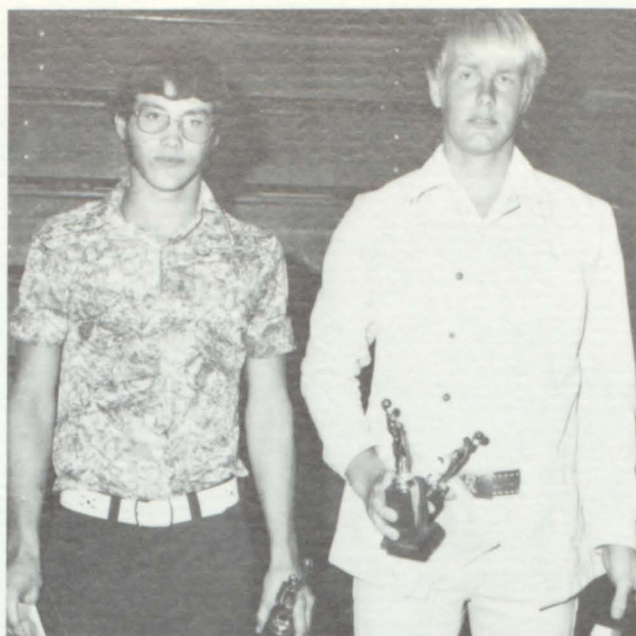

With no excuses for absences filed behind her name, Teresa Park was presented with the perfect attendance award.

Tammy Bohlen solemnly received the art award.

Brian Remington received an award for his outstanding qualities in the field of baseball.

Jeff Withers and Lorin Schluter were the recipients of the various varsity basketball trophies.

"Boasting" a .581%, Larry Roberts received the JV Free-throw trophy. Below: GAA awards were won by Theresa Gordon, bowling; Sara Fourez and Karen Elliott, badminton; Tammy Bohlen, sportsmanship.

The Student Council sportsmanship trophies were presented to Theresa Gordon and Larry Roberts.

1977

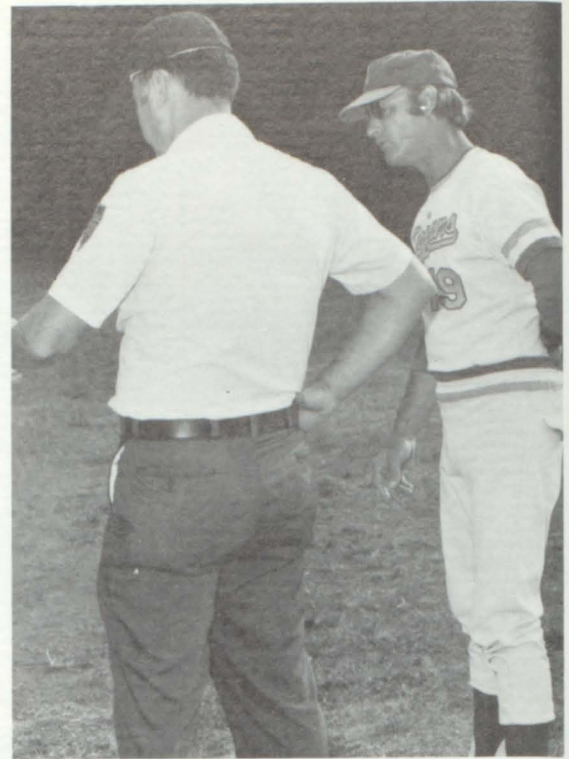

Sports

Baseball Team

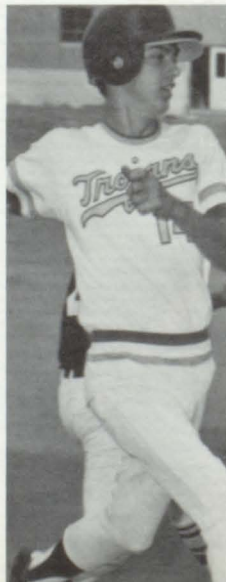

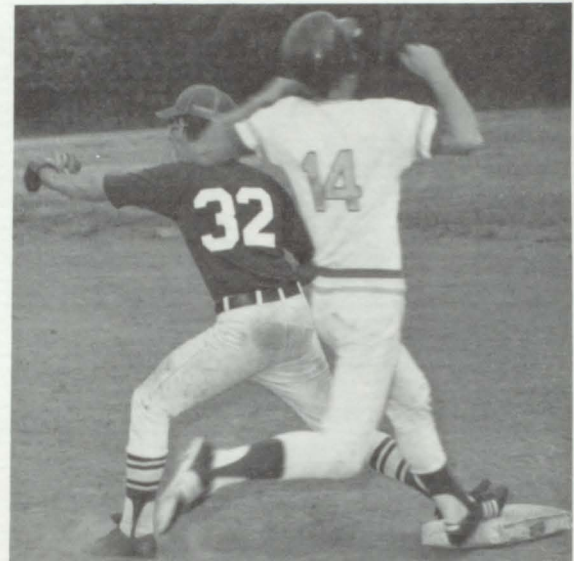

Armstrong baseball finished the year with honor and respectability, winning five of their nine games and tying for third in the Iroquois Conference. The four losses were lost by a meager total of six runs. The freshmen class sported nine eager beginners on the field this year who contributed immensely to the team's five wins. Our star player, however, was a senior. Lorin Schluter, Armstrong's Babe Ruth, finished the season with a .640 batting average and a spot on the All-Conference team. Coach Hulfachor's team consisted of Lorin Schluter, Jeff McElhoe, Doug McElhoe, Rodney Buhr, Brian Remington, Dan James, Jeff Tucker, Chris Cler, Larry Goodhue, Larry Roberts, Scott James, Matt Fleming, Jamie Miles, Jeff Withers, Tracy Roberts, John Butler, Leon Schluter, Tim Sandy, Eric Cornelius.

Trojans End Their Season

at the .500 Mark

Despite the fact that the Varsity squad ended the year with only six players and that five of those six were blessed with "unhealthy" ankles that had to be taped before each game, Coach Bezely's Trojans finished the season with a 13-13 over-all record.

Though every Trojan is a superstar, number 33, "husky" Lorin Schluter, deserves individual commendation. Lorin was named on the Iroquois Conference team, All-County team, East Central Conference team, and Rossville Holiday Tournament team.

Middle: Coach Bezely, Tracy, Lorin, and Randy bid farewell to their basketball careers at ATHS.

Excuse me please.

J. V.'s Win Iroquois Conference

The J. V. squad, coached by Mr. Wolken, clinched the Iroquois Conference title with an 8-0 record. They ended the season with a 13-5 over-all record. J. V. players are Leon Schluter, Larry Roberts, Chris Cler, Jay Fruhling, Brian Remington, Rich Rademacher, Doug McElhoe, Coach Wolken, Jamie Miles, Ed Hannagan, Scott James, Matt Fleming, Harry Cockrell, Kent Cornelius.

The thought of half-time in the locker room is pleasant—when you're ahead!

Mr. Wolken's Freshman-Sophomore team placed second in the Cissna Park tournament and third in ABL's. The "inexperienced" freshman squad finished the year with an 8-1 record.

Armstrong people are avid basketball fans.

Freshman-Sophomore Team Places in Tournaments

Volleyball Team

After four weeks of practice, the volleyball team, coached by Mrs. Tate, began its second season. The B team ended the year with a 7-0 record while the A team advanced to regional competition also undefeated. There they were upset by a more experienced Champaign Centennial team, 20-9 and 20-11, to finish their season with a 7-1 record.

Right: The A team members are Brenda Martin, Lori Roberts, Sara Fourez, Tammy Bohlen, Rhonda Roberts, Teresa Tool, Theresa Gordon and Mrs. Tate, coach.
